STATEMENT ON THE BREONNA TAYLOR GRAND JURY DECISION

The decision of the grand jury in Louisville, Kentucky not to indict any officers for causing the death of Breonna Taylor is a travesty of justice.

These types of travesties happen all too often, and we unfortunately are seeing once again how the criminal justice system devalues the lives of Black women and men in this country.

We offer our continuing and heartfelt support to Ms. Taylor's family, friends and colleagues, and recommit ourselves to fighting for real and meaningful reforms to the system, so that hopefully one day we can honestly say that there is "equal justice under law" and Black Lives Matter.
